Foreword

It is heartwarming to note that due to the diligence and zeal of our members as well as several amendments made at the General Conference, the Third Edition of The Constitution of The Mizoram College Teachers' Association has finally come into being. All amendments made by the General Conference has been included in this edition.

I express my sincere thanks to the Editorial Board of the MCTA Newsletter, for their tireless efforts in publishing the third edition of MCTA Constitution, and also extend my heartiest congratulations to them on the success of their efforts.

The Third Edition of The Constitution of the MCTA, I hope will unite all the Branch members under the banner of the MCTA and serve as a bridge between different institutions under Higher Education in Mizoram.
